

Season 2 Episode 14

Justice in 63

A knight in shiny gray armor is in the rain at night in front of a heavily guarded fortress. The knight has the forty-eight state US flag on his right shoulder and the Canada flag from 1957 on his left shoulder. The knight takes out a large sword with a ruby red blade. The knight runs to the front of the fortress, but the draw bridge is up. The knight jumps, and he jabs his sword down the front bridge and he steps on his sword handle and he jumps off it and the wooden bridge door falls in two and the knight dashes inside the fortress. He looks around and soldier knights appear all around him. The knight fights off the soldier knights with his sword and he begins to walk away but one of the soldier knights sneaks behind him. The knight takes a large hammer and he quietly sneaks behind the knight. The knight slashes his sword at the knight soldier behind him and he falls to the ground. The knight walks up the stairs and he enters a throne room. A king in black and blue robes sits in the throne. The king said, "Justice Knight, you have come for me once more." Justice Knight said, "What do you know about, Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion?" The king said, "I don't know what you are talking about." Justice Knight jumps up to the king and he holds his sword at the king. Justice Knight said, "Don't pretend you don't know what this is about, King Arcturus." King Arcturus said, "Look, I assure you, there is no Jason and Mason here and I don't know about that Captain either. Does he serve under my command?" Justice Knight said, "No one should ever serve under your command." King Arcturus said, "Some people like it. Like this guy here." King Arcturus snaps his fingers and a dragon smashes through the wall and he breathes fire on Justice Knight. Justice Knight blocks the fire with his sword and he sends the fire back at the dragon. The dragon flinches backwards but he goes for Justice Knight. He throws a hand under Justice Knight and he jumps and he slashes the dragon's hand. The dragon grabs onto Justice Knight with his other hand and he flies away with Justice Knight. The dragon flies over the black and dreary kingdom. Justice Knight uses his sword and he cuts the dragon's hand and he jumps on top of the dragon and he tries to control the dragon. The dragon flies upside down and Justice Knight falls from the great height. He splashes in a pond. Justice Knight takes out a handheld computer and he looks at different time periods on it. He said, "I guess they are not in this time period." He crosses off medieval times.

Jason and Mason enter a conference room. They see no one is there but Captain Fusion. Captain Fusion said, "Jason, Mason, glad you can make it." Mason said, "You summoned us. What was it for?" Captain Fusion said, "There is a lot of crime and injustice in our world. It has plagued our world since the beginning of time. I have been the lead guardian of peace and justice for decades but I cannot do it alone. I formed the Fusion League. It is a league of many different superheroes that team up together to fight crime. I think some people are here." The door to the conference room opens and Justice Knight walks in. Captain Fusion said, "Welcome to the Fusion League. I am..." Justice Knight said, "I know who you are."

Justice Knight takes a seat. Admiral Lightning enters. Captain Fusion said, "Welcome to the Fusion League I am... oh wait..." Admiral Lightning said, "I'm the one that inspired you and trained you and now you make me serve under your command on some super hero team? Why am I not the commander in chief of this team?" Captain Fusion said, "I thought of this first." Admiral Lightning rolls his eyes and takes a seat. A super hero with a grandfather clock for a body enters. A red witch enters. Men in flashy tights enter. A man dressed as Elvis Presley enters. Jason and Mason look at each other and Jason said, "I never realized so many costumed freaks lived in our world. I wonder how long they will last in a fight." Mason said, "I don't think they will get past the first wave of tension."

Captain Fusion begins the conference. Captain Fusion said, "I'm sure you all know me. I am Captain Fusion, the world-famous super hero that saved your skins at some point or another. I bring you all here because I am forming my own team called the Fusion League and our goal is to be a team and fight evil and make our world safer. We are organized super heroes. We are our own organization." The grandfather clock bodied super hero raises his hand. Captain Fusion said, "You have something to add?" The clocked super hero said, "It is great that you formed your own team but, how well would it do if it were going against a villain that could freeze all of you in time at the blink of an eye. Kind of what Clock King would do." Captain Fusion said, "I've dealt with Clock King several times before. I could take that guy out easy." The grandfather clock super hero throws off the grandfather clock and he reveals himself to be Clock King.

Clock King takes out a giant mega gun and he aims it to one end of the room and he freezes everyone there. Admiral Lightning said, "You see. If I ran this league, things like this would not happen." Admiral Lightning gets frozen by the time beam from the mega gun. An old bald man with gray hair around his head with a moustache and an iconic voice enters the scene. He said, "Oh boy true believers and new comers alike. It seems the Clock King is freezing all of Captain Fusion's super hero league..." The man gets frozen with the time beam. Everyone in the room runs around and panics in fear. A nerd is dressed in tights and a cape and he shakes and panics and he gets frozen with the beam. Elvis walks around and he said, "I need to eat this burger before I get frozen." Clock King freezes the Elvis superhero while he is holding the burger. A statue in the room breaks and Jason and Mason run and hide behind it. Jason said, "What are we going to do now?" Mason looks through gadgets he keeps up his sleeves. Mason said, "None of my good gadgets are here." Jason's eyes go big and he said, "That means we are sitting ducks." Justice Knight takes a stand against the Clock King. The Clock King fires a beam at Justice Knight and Justice Knight swings at it with his sword and the beam does nothing. Clock King keeps firing beams at Justice Knight and Justice Knight keeps knocking them off and he walks to Clock King and Justice Knight slashes and destroys the beam with his sword. Clock King runs to the other end of the room. Clock King waves his arms around and he creates a magical portal and he uses it like a net. He captures Jason and Mason with it. Captain Fusion sees what happened and he said, "Jason, Mason! You will not have it end like this." Captain Fusion runs for Clock King and Clock King tries to capture Captain Fusion with the net. Captain Fusion hits Clock King on the side and then he bashes Clock King's head into his body. Captain Fusion jumps back while Clock King spins out of control. Clock King throws his net at Captain Fusion and it captures Captain Fusion and the net falls to the floor and disappears. Justice Knight sees what has happened. Justice Knight grabs onto Clock King. Justice Knight said, "Where did you send them?" Clock King said, "Why would I tell you?" Justice Knight takes out his sword and he said, "You will answer to my sword and you will answer to my flags as well." Justice Knight points out the flags on him. Clock King spins around and he jumps into another point in time. Justice Knight said, "I need to find, Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion before Clock King unleashes some new plot to rule the world." Justice Knight looks around the room and he sees all the other super heroes that came to the event have been frozen in time. Justice Knight said, "I also need to find a way to get these people unfrozen in time."

Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion fall down a portal and they land on a street where they see 60's cars and 60's posters everywhere in the city. Jason said, "Where are we?" Mason said, "I am asking the same question." They walk by a newspaper stand. Mason takes a paper and he looks at the date on it. Mason said, "July 21 1963." Jason said, "We're in 1963?" Mason said, "It appears so." Captain Fusion takes a paper bag and he puts it over his head. Captain Fusion said, "This is bad. I exist in this time and I was a super hero in this time too. If I meet myself, this could spell dangerous consequences to our universe." Jason said, "I think that is something they just made up for TV." Mason said, "He has a point. It may be best if we keep the Captain Fusion from our time away from the Captain Fusion from this time." Captain Fusion said, "We need to find the Clock King too. He must be here somewhere."

Justice Knight appears at a carnival and he searches the grounds. He checks his portable handheld and it says it is 1958 on it. A vendor sees Justice Knight and he said, "Justice Knight, you are back. Do you want to buy more flags for that collection of yours you must be proud of?" Justice Knight said, "I have some serious business to attend to. Have you seen these people around?" Justice Knight shows the vendor pictures of Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion. The Vendor said, "I don't think I've seen them around. I'm sure they will turn up eventually." Justice Knight said, "I hope so."

Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion are in a motel room watching TV. DDD News comes on the screen. A man with a moustache appears on the screen. He said, "Hello, I am Tom Watts of DDD News. In today's news, Captain Fusion has foiled yet another bank robbery and he is here right now for an interview. What do you say?" Captain Fusion appears on the screen. He said, "It was just like any other day. It has been months since I've faced any real serious villains. I guess the world of villains is scared of me now." Tom Watts said, "I'm sure they are. Tell me, have you been following any crime rings lately?" Captain Fusion said, "I destroyed most gangs in the city." Tom Watts said, "People are saying they spotted a man with a weird futuristic looking clock on his head walking around the city." The TV shows a photo of Clock King from present day in Jason and Mason's time." Jason and Mason's eyes go big when they see that." Tom Watts said, "I think he was going for a convention hall somewhere for one of those comic conventions. I am sure you would like to be there since there is not much else for you to do." Captain Fusion said, "I will be there and is it any villains' plan to show up, I will kick their butts." Tom Watts said, "That's the spirit we want. I am Tom Watts, DDD News."

Jason said, "Clock King is heading for the convention hall." Mason said, "We need to go there and stop him. I'm sure you will blend in well. You can just say you are an old guy cosplaying as Captain Fusion." Captain Fusion said, "I like the way you think. Let's go there." They go to the convention hall and they see people everywhere in freaky costumes. They see people selling comic books and other collectables. Captain Fusion takes out his Fusion Goggles and he places them on his eyes and he scans the place for Clock King. He spots Clock King. Captain Fusion said, "Clock King spotted. Let's go for him." They walk through the crowd of cosplayers. Clock King moves and Captain Fusion changes his direction and Jason and Mason follow him. They end up walking on a stage that a lot of people are watching. The announcer said, "The award for the best Captain Fusion cosplayer is..." Captain Fusion enters the stage and he gets a blue ribbon placed on his chest. Everyone watching claps. The announcer said, "This old guy wins because he did something that no one else would think of doing. He did not simply dress as Captain Fusion, he is trying to be Captain Fusion as an old man. I think Captain Fusion would look like that if he were an old man." Captain Fusion leaves the stage with Jason and Mason at his side. The announcer said, "I guess the old man can't handle all the fame he is getting and has to return to the old folks' home for his nap time."

They see Clock King is trying to leave the place. Captain Fusion jumps and knocks down the Clock King and pins him to the ground. Clock King said, "You again? How did you find me?" Captain Fusion said, "I am a lot smarter than you think I am." Clock King said, "Oh yeah." Clock King takes out his scepter and he waves it around and he lifts Jason, Mason, and Captain Fusion and he throws them out of the building and they smash through a wall. Everyone in the convention hall goes outside to watch the fight. They see Captain Fusion fighting with Clock King. Captain Fusion hits Clock King in the head a few times and Clock King punches Captain Fusion in the gut. Jason and Mason jump on Clock King and they pin him to the ground. Captain Fusion gets hold of the scepter. Captain Fusion said, "We need to get this thing to work or else we will be stuck here." Clock King throws Jason and Mason off him and he jumps for Captain Fusion. Captain Fusion throws the scepter to Jason and Mason. Clock King runs for Jason and Mason. Jason and Mason try to grab the scepter out of each other's hands. Clock King throws Mason off him and Jason kicks Clock King in the face and he runs off with the scepter. Jason said, "I would rather live in a world that is safe than a world ruled by you. I know there are other ways." Clock King said, "What do you mean." Mason and Captain Fusion scratch their heads. Jason smashes the scepter to the ground and he stomps on it and then he takes a lighter and he lights it on fire. Jason looks at the crowd and he said, "Don't do this at home kids."

Clock King runs to the remains of his scepter. He said, "You smashed my scepter. We are stuck here for all eternity now. You will pay Jason. I will have your head for a trophy." A portal appears in the fray and Justice Knight jumps out of it. He holds his sword in a heroic pose and he said, "Leave Jason and Mason alone. It is me you want. I know what you want, and I have it. We can make a deal." Clock King said, "NEVER!" Clock King jumps on Justice Knight and he knocks the sword out of Justice Knight's hand. It slides down the fray. Jason and Mason try to pick it up but it is so heavy that it does not even move in the slightest. Clock King tries to pick up the sword but it does not budge either. Clock King said, "What kind of black magic is this?" Justice Knight said, "Only he who is worthy can use the ruby sword of justice." Clock King tries harder and he strains his back. Captain Fusion walks by and he picks up the sword and raises it in the air for all to see. Clock King said, "What is going on here?" Captain Fusion uses the sword and he cuts the head of Clock King in half and one half of his digital clock head falls to the ground revealing the circuitry on the inside. Captain Fusion elbows Clock King in the chest. Clock King falls to the ground in defeat. Everyone cheers and claps. Justice Knight walks to Captain Fusion and Captain Fusion gives Justice Knight his sword back. Justice Knight said, "You truly are the most justice filled man in the world. You have more justice in you than you know it. That goes for you too, Jason and Mason. Now it is time we return but not out here."

Jason and Mason watch Justice Knight prepare for time travel away from the civilians. People are asking for autographs from old Captain Fusion. Then, Captain Fusion in 1963 shows up to the event. Old Captain Fusion is put face to face with young Captain Fusion. They stare at each other. Young Captain Fusion said, "I'm glad to see that old people like me too and that they can be just as heroic as I am." Young Captain Fusion pats old Captain Fusion on the shoulder. Young Captain Fusion walks to the other fans and he said, "You are a hero all right. You still have a lot in your future." Old Captain Fusion leaves the scene and he jumps into the portal Justice Knight has created with Jason and Mason at his side.

Captain Fusion is in the conference room again and he said, "Now that Clock King is behind bars again, we can now rest easier. We now know that justice knows no bounds regardless of what time or place it is in. That's what I want all of you to know." All the heroes sitting in the conference room look dazed and confused. Jason said, "I think they are still a little bit messed up from being frozen in time." Captain Fusion said, "I've seen enough for one day. Let's call this off for now." Mason said, "I still got something to ask you, Jason. How did you know Justice Knight would find us like that and bring us back to our time?" Jason said, "I didn't. I thought we were going to have to spend the rest of our lives in the past."
